

RESETTING FOR SUCCESS

A resource newsletter built for busy business leaders by an agency that works with pretty awesome ones.

Summer can feel a bit like a dream. We slowly awake as vacations end, kids go back to school, and days get shorter — but not before one more long weekend! This upcoming Labour Day weekend is the perfect opportunity to give one last hurrah to summer before getting back to fall routines. Think of it as your soft reset before planning for next year starts.

As always, 6P has curated insightful content for when you begin:

Improving Your Commute

Between construction and impending back-to-school, expect your commute to stretch a little longer this month. Take a listen to any of these great podcasts to help pass the time.
