

A resource newsletter built for busy business leaders by an agency that works with pretty awesome ones.

For many the Labour Day long weekend signals the transition from summer into fall, from vacation to all-day classes, and from weekend beach bumming to hyper-productive workdays.

At 6P, we're grateful for the energy in the air and the chance to reset for a new season.

In that spirit, we've curated a few articles for your benefit:

Fighting Through Inflation

As inflation continues to make trouble, research shows businesses that consistently put their customers first in hard times tend to make it out better.
